*If it is discovered that a student is currently planning harm to self or others, the student is required to be professionally assessed and determined emotionally stable before returning to school.

Local Professional Resources

*The King's Christian School does not necessarily fully endorse any of these options. Nor is this list in any way comprehensive of what is available. These are provided for you as a start to your own personal search for options. Please use research, consultation with others, discretion, wisdom, and prayer in evaluating the right place for guidance for your student and family.
